

Stagetime is a fresh, fun approach to theatre education. Teaching children Singing, Acting, and Dancing using teachers qualified in the relevant disciplines in comfortable, high quality venues. At Stagetime, children will have the opportunity to boost their:

- Confidence
- Concentration
- Self-Esteem
- Self-Discipline
- Motivation
- Interpersonal Skills

"(Stagetime) has given my daughter more confidence, expresses herself more clearly and loves to sing and dance to anything she hears. Thank you for the classes!!" Linda, Shrewsbury

Stagetime concentrates on teaching students safe and professional techniques and the skills required for a variety of performance types. We will be introducing a unique system of rewards and achievement levels created with current West End professionals and qualified Drama, Dance and Singing teachers.

"Since they have been attending Stagetime I have had fab reports from school for each of my children regarding their growing confidence and finding the ability to speak up in class" Heidi, Shrewsbury

Stagetime also offers performing arts provision for primary schools - please contact us for more details
